NEW QUESTION: 1

What are the differences between holding and parking documents? (There are two correct answers.)

- A. The parked document can trigger workflow processes.
- B. The held document can be incomplete.
- C. The parked document is considered for financial statements.
- D. The held document doesn't have a document number assigned.

Answer: A,D

Explanation:

Held documents don't receive a document number (though the user assigns an identifier to be able to retrieve them). Only document parking is integrated with the SAP Business Workflow. On the other hand, both parked and held documents can be saved incomplete, and neither held nor parked documents are included in financial statements.
