NEW QUESTION: 1

Which of the following access control models is based on sensitivity labels?

- A. Rule-based access control
- B. Mandatory access control
- C. Role-based access control
- D. Discretionary access control

Answer: B

Explanation:

Access decisions are made based on the clearance of the subject and the sensitivity label of the object.

Example: Eve has a "Secret" security clearance and is able to access the "Mugwump Missile Design Profile" because its sensitivity label is "Secret." She is denied access to the "Presidential Toilet Tissue Formula" because its sensitivity label is "Top Secret."

The other answers are not correct because:

Discretionary Access Control is incorrect because in DAC access to data is determined by the data owner. For example, Joe owns the "Secret Chili Recipe" and grants read access to Charles.

Role Based Access Control is incorrect because in RBAC access decisions are made based on the role held by the user. For example, Jane has the role "Auditor" and that role includes read permission on the "System Audit Log."

Rule Based Access Control is incorrect because it is a form of MAC. A good example would be a Firewall where rules are defined and apply to anyone connecting through the firewall.

NEW QUESTION: 2

A company is developing a real-time multiplier game that uses UDP for communications between client and servers in an Auto Scaling group. Spikes in demand are anticipated during the day, so the game server platform must adapt accordingly. Developers want to store gamer scores and other non-relational data in a database solution that will scale without intervention.

Which solution should a solution architect recommend?

- A. Use an Application Load Balancer for traffic distribution and Amazon DynamoDB global tables for data storage
- B. Use a Network Load Balancer for traffic distribution and Amazon Aurora Global for data storage.
- C. Use Amazon Route 53 for traffic distribution and Amazon Aurora Serverless for data storage.
- D. Use a Network Load Balancer for traffic distribution and Amazon DynamoDB on-demand for data storage.
